Appendix: Script and Pictures used in Experiment 2

False-belief Condition

The false-belief condition in Experiment 1 was identical except that the pictures featured different women.

Introduction-1		"This is a story about a girl named Emily." "There's Emily! Do you see Emily?" (Pause 3 s) "Emily has a friend named Sarah."
Introduction-2		"There's Sarah! Do you see Sarah?" (Pause 3 s) "Emily has an apple."
Setup-1		"See? Emily has an apple." (Pause 3 s) "Emily puts her apple in a box."
Setup-2		"Look! Emily is putting her apple in a box." (Pause 3 s) "Emily is tired. She goes upstairs to take a nap."
Setup-3		"See? There she is taking a nap." (Pause 3 s) "While Emily is sleeping, Sarah takes the apple out of the box and puts it in the basket."
Setup-4		"Look! She's putting the apple in the basket." (Pause 3 s) "And then Sarah goes outside to play."
Setup-5		"See? She's outside playing with her frisbee." (Pause 3 s) "Emily wakes up and she's hungry! She looks
Test trial		"See? Emily is looking for her apple." (Pause 3 s) "Emily is looking for her apple." (Pause 3 s)

Knowledge Condition

The knowledge condition was identical to the false-belief condition except for the script used in setup-3, setup-4, and setup-5 and the picture used in setup-4.

Setup-3

"Emily sits down to read her book."

"See? There she is reading her book."

(Pause 3 s)

"While Emily is watching, Sarah takes the apple out of the box and puts it in the basket."

Setup-4

"Look! She's putting the apple in the basket."

(Pause 3 s)

"And then Sarah goes outside to play."

Setup-5

"See? She's outside playing with her frisbee."

(Pause 3 s)

"Emily is hungry. She goes and looks for her apple."